"PROSPERITY WILL COME WITH A JUMP," DECLARES WILSON AT WHITE HOUSE

Optimism of Manufacturers All That Is Needed, Says the President.

CONDITIONS ARE GOOD.

There Is No Material Reason for Depression; Tariff Has Had No Ill Effect.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON, June 1.—President Wilson laid aside consideration of the Mexican situation to-day to give attention to business conditions of the country and pending economic legislation. The doors of the inner executive office were opened this morning for resumption of regular interviews with Washington newspaper correspondents after nearly two months of suspension.

Mr. Wilson declined to comment on any phase of Mexican affairs or progress of peace negotiations at Niagara Falls, but he did discuss with considerable freedom business conditions of the country.

It seemed to him, the President said, that general business was good. An unsatisfactory situation centered very largely about the railway office, and that was reflected in the steel industry and other industries closely allied which depend largely on railway development for prosperity.

Prosperity will come with a jump, is the President's belief, if only the manufacturers would believe it was coming.

He expressed firm conviction that the tariff has nothing to do with any business depression that may be experienced and in proof of this reference was made to recently published statistics showing excess of exports over imports.

Attention was called, also, to the recent statement of Chairman Gary of the United States Steel Corporation, in which opinion was expressed that the general outlook in the steel trade is good.

The President was asked concerning progress of the anti-trust legislation now pending before Congress, particularly the recently accepted amendment designed to exempt labor organizations as combinations in restraint of trade.

The President said he did not understand that the Clayton act was designed to grant labor organizations any privileges they did not now enjoy. It is the purpose of the act, as he understands it, to define the right of labor organizations more clearly and to remove any doubt of their rights created by various court decisions.

According to the views expressed by the President on this subject during the discussion, it is his understanding that labor organizations are not given any privileges denied to other organizations.
